Dear Sirs:

It is gratifying to observe that someone deplores the ever-growing tendency to mollycoddle children in these times. I, in turn, deplore Mr. Wyden's constant reliance on the opinions of so-called "experts" and psychiatrists. This is exactly what these suburban parents have done, and the results are most evident.

Dear Sirs:

I feel a kinship with Mrs. Greis, known [in Bellefontaine Neighbors, Mo.] as "the witch of Waldorf Street" because she makes her children walk a mile to school. I, too, am called "old-fashioned" or just plain "nut"! I let my daughter walk to school in the rain yesterday, and today it is pouring....

Dearest Jean -

We have a blue clematis with more rounded leaves than those in the painting. The blossoms have been gorgeous this year - much larger than before.

We have spoken with Charlotte and our Jean and all of us have the impression that you have things under control - difficult as we know it must be for you. We wish that we weren't so far away so that we could help, and we hope that you will call on us whenever you need to.

This morning was spent in L.A. at the Museum of Contemporary Art. We had been told that Borofsky and Red Broom displays were a must. Unfortunately neither of us were impressed by the show - It was a fantasyland of "sculptured" paintings and electrically ^{controlled} ~~seen~~ enormous figures, not to our taste. There were many young children there and of course they had a ball. We had lunch at a nearby Sushi Bar - really delicious. Abe sends his love with mine - Regula

Dear Mrs. Dickie,

I received the wonderful book you left for me. I know that not only my children, but our whole family, will have many hours of fun using your husband's ideas for sketching and drawing. Thank you for your thoughtful gift to our family. I will always cherish the book.

I never got a chance to truly meet your husband, but as I look at his talent and the beauty he possessed inside, I wish so much I could have known this wonderful man. It must give you great comfort to know that he died peacefully, that he lived a very rich life, and that he will always be remembered through his works. -- and to share this talent with children -- how special!

Thank you again Mrs. Dickie. I will never forget you or Mr. Dickie.
Love, Karen Moring

Dear Jean

I have saved this stationary for someone I regard very highly!

If there is anything
I can do, just let me know.

I thought Jim would make it, but he had quite a fight on his hands. So did you & you were both gallant!

I hope you get rested soon & will be able to maybe

get away for awhile.
That is if you are able to straighten up things that always have to be done! I know the about that.

Any way I am thinking of you always & hope you are a bit rested!

Will stay in touch always!

Dear Jean,

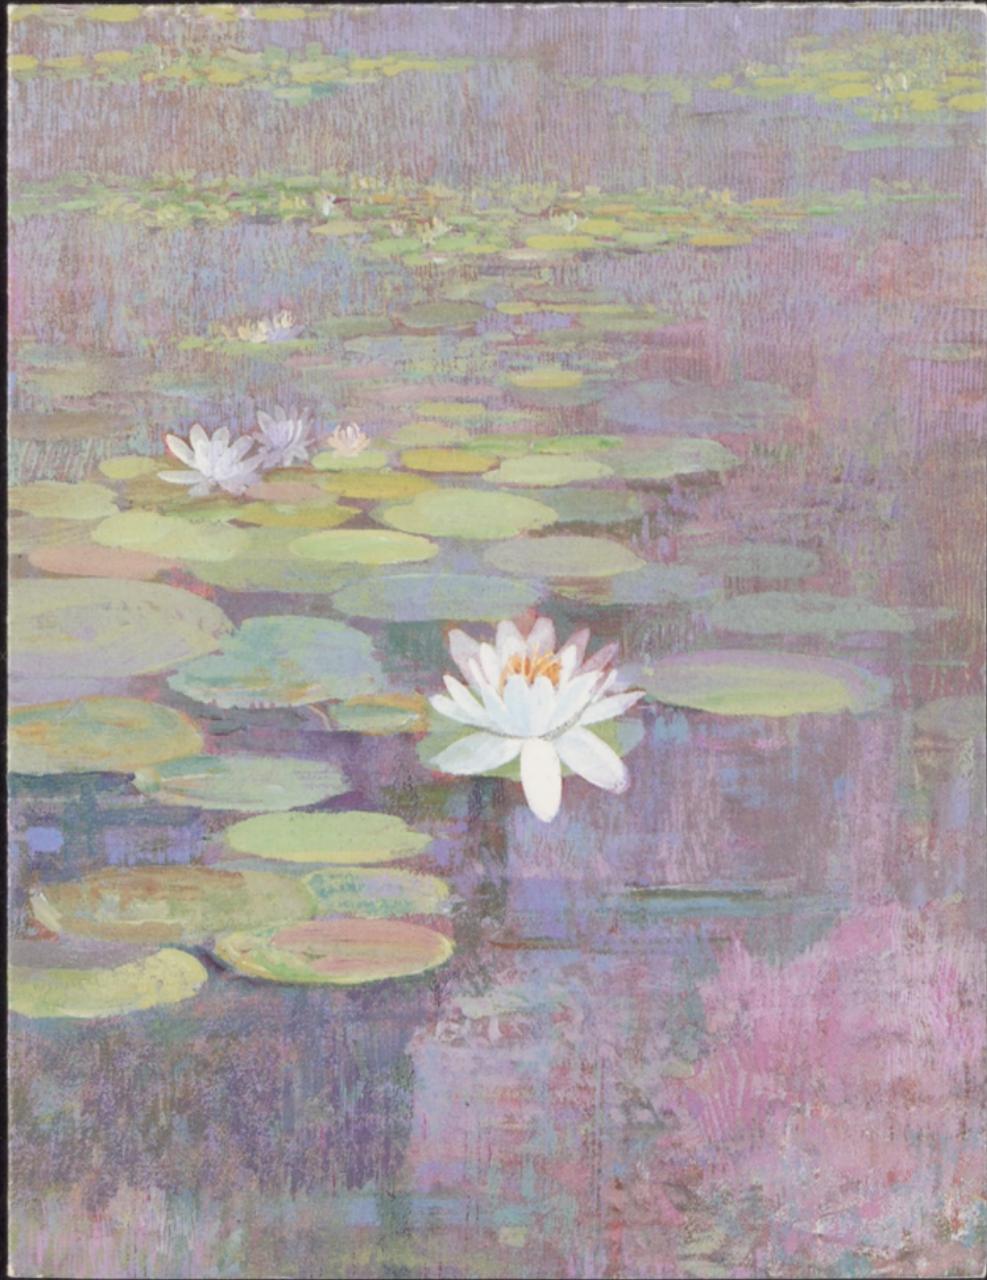

We were so sorry to hear that you have lost your dear James, although it has seemed for many years that only his spirit and your love and support could be overcoming his physical problems. I know you will miss him so much, and I have many fond memories of him, and of his kindness.

It was an excellent article in the paper. Thank you for sending it. I will keep it with the Bible from his grandmother, which I treasure.

It was such a blessing that you had so many happy years together, and I hope that you will find comfort in your good memories. You will be in our prayers.

With very much love,

Dear Jean,

We are so very sorry to hear of James' passing and send you our deepest sympathy.

We know how much you both lived for each other and how different

²
this must be for you.

James was so very fortunate to have had you, the perfect wife for him, to share his life. Not many enjoy such love and mutual concern.

My very dear Jean,

I have just returned from a trip to Alaska to read your sad news. I never actually spent much time with Jim but he was truly a person that you only had to meet to love him. I have his drawing of "the meeting" framed and on my wall and as I had sent you the snapshot of your painting I thought, next year I will send a snap of Jim's picture. So much for next year. It is an adorable picture but if you need it for the museum collection I would be glad to return it. I am so glad that his work will be preserved in the Cartoon Art Museum.

I do know how you will miss him Jean. It was just so wonderful that you found each other. It seemed to me that you were each what the other needed and it will be hard to go on alone. I hope you are engrossed in some work of your own. It helps.

My trip to Alaska had two objects: Kit, the darling girl who was engaged to my Johnnie lives in Juneau so I got to see her and her family. And every year I have a reunion with two old college chums (one year they came to Carmel). This year one of them suggested we meet in Juneau and she could visit her son who lives there. Isn't this seaweed paper amazing.

I love you,

Angie

We are so very sad to hear of Jim's death.
We did not know about it because we don't person - we loved him very much and will miss him, as will everyone who knew him.

We know you will be very sad and lonely without him - if we can ever help you

Dear, my Dear. You have memories of many years of happy married life. In that you are fortunate. And now you still have a strong arm to support you, for Jesus says:-

"Ask and it shall be given you;
seek, and ye shall find;
knock and it shall be opened unto you."

You belong to a fine family and you have many friends - all of whom love you and will support you, and One who says,

"So, I am with you always, even to the end of the world."

Over the telephone, I feel a strength in your voice. You have a plan about your husband's parties. I am not sure what that plan is. Some day when you feel able to write, I wish you would repeat what I did not catch.

Dear Jean, here are abundant loving verses.

Charlotte.

My Dear Jean:

I read with surprise and sadness of Jimmies death in the morning paper.

Regardless of age or conditions, the loss of a loved one is just as great.

James had gone thru so much this last year, but thanks to you, the way was made easier.

Those of us who knew him will remember him with love and affection.

God bless you and give you strength and courage in your sorrow,

Sincerely,

I am thinking about you a great deal, in your sorrow. You have been a most wonderful wife to James I know. You must take comfort in that and you will surely be together again.

I want you to come to me when you can. I have a roll-a-way bed and we can eat three meals a day. You will need a change before long. I will be so happy to have you Jean dear.

My dear Jan:

I am so sorry that you must go through all of this heartache. I have had a good deal of it too and I know what it is like.

I have sent a check to the hospital in his [unclear]

I know you will miss Jamie very much but it is a blessing that you have your art. Take care of yourself, my thoughts are with

Dear Marlene,

I hasten to respond to your sad news - letter just received; pleased however to hear that dear Jim's passing was not too prolonged nor too painful.

His reputation and memory are certainly in good hands. The Heart Fund is a nice tribute and I'm pleased to add myittance enclosed.

Now Jean, when things are somewhat rearranged there - do please come on East and spend some time here with me. I plan to remain right here until Aug which I expect to spend in Quebec.

Why not join me? Please do. It will be a one week each way by boat and a fortnight in Montreal and Quebec. And then you will be somewhat refreshed to resume painting etc in the fall.

Please don't say no!

all my love -

Dear Jean,

How are you?
Yes, I know you miss Jim (and so do I!) but you "gave your all to him" & made his life "worth living"! I remember many times dropping in on you, and you had served Jim in an elegant manner! I know it must be difficult to "cope" with out him, but you will!

I hate to admit this, but I broke (fractured) my right ankle, falling, while playing golf! It's not even safe walking! (h) I have a below the knee, plastic cast,
and I worked today, & survived! It's difficult to learn to drive using your left foot on the brake! but I'm moving! I'm so pleased that I can drive & work because I'd go insane sitting around for 4-6 wks.
waiting for this fracture to heal!

I'm due for a trip to Montevideo! After I recover, maybe in early Sept.
I'll take a drive up the coast.

Yes, I'm happy living in La. & I'm enjoying my work!
We've had a very comfortable summer!
The air is much cleaner than it used to be -

Hope all is well
with you Jean - I know you have a "whole new

the best, just "trust

Dear Jean:

Your letter with its beautiful thoughts brought tears to my eyes. Those days when Dick was alive were the very best of my stay in California. Our friendship with you and Jim made it all so worthwhile.

I read the clipping while in California this last time, so knew of Jim's fine achievements, many of them known already. Thank you for sending the article which will be put in my book of memories. - (memories)

Please, dear Jean, if you come to a point when you might want a change of scene and pace, do consider a visit to "my" island of Hawaii. There is a direct flight from San Fran cised to Kona where I can pick you up. During certain times there are special fares ($385 round trip) but one has to book early as these seats are limited.

It would be a delight to have you here as I know you would enjoy the wonders and special history of this island. There is an extra room and bath here so you can be comfortable.

Thank you again for your letter. Much love,

Dorothy

Dear Mrs Eickie,

I am so very sorry to hear of your troubles and do hope that you have been able to see a doctor for your husband and that the sun and sea will soon work its magic on you both. It is most disappointing for you to have your holiday begin so sadly.

I am very glad to hear that you are comfortable and being looked after: I am sure you will find someone to help you out of your troubles.

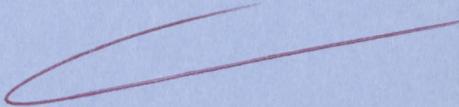

I shall be so glad to hear from you how things go. I have just myself recovered from the 'flu and am now in the throes of Having painters in the house which is a misery. However I hope they will soon finish.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Jean -

It was with great sadness that I learned of your recent loss. Fritz and I so admired your gifted husband, and the memory of our meetings with you and him in the past is a happy one.

I feel a very special sympathy for women who, like yourself, are suddenly left alone and parted from a loved companion of many long years. It is a heart-breaking wrench - and only those who have "been there" can truly understand this bereavement. - But I know that you, with your great spiritual resources, will be sustained thereby and given much strength and courage to face the future.

Please believe that my empathy for you is deeply felt and that I pleasure, reminded of him and what he meant to all of us.
